

HIGHLAND HOSPITAL

To: EMS professionals

From: John Hilmi, Emergency Department Medical Director

Date: March 14, 2008

Re: Temporary change: ED access door

Dear EMS colleagues,

Due to construction in our Emergency Department, the double doors you normally use to bring in patients to treatment areas is temporarily closed. When you enter the building, please follow the signs and enter through the doors to your left.

We apologize for the inconvenience. This detour should be necessary only for a few days. We will let you know when you may again use the standard entrance.

Sincerely,

John Hilmi