

RSI Credentialing Program

Scenario Essay Question

Grading Rubric

Participant must demonstrate understanding and a sound clinical approach to all aspects of care outlined below as applicable to the case presented.

Clinical Decision Making/Cognitive	Y/N/NA
Initiates appropriate treatment of the underlying medical condition based on the underlying physiology of the clinical presentation
Correctly prioritizes the patient's management based on the underlying clinical condition
Uses an escalating approach to airway management appropriate to the clinical condition
Chooses pharmacologic agents and doses that are appropriate given the clinical presentation
Identifies an appropriate post-intubation management plan
Provides sufficient explanation for the evaluator to understand the thought process behind the clinical decisions made	